AFRICA AND THE UN AT 70: A PUBLIC LECTURE ON Africa and the UN’s Evolving Agenda for Peace, Security, Human Rights and Socio-
Economic Development

Prof. Ibrahim Gambari
Chairman and Founder, Savannah Centre for Diplomacy,
Democracy, and Development (SCDDD), Abuja, Nigeria

Tuesday, September 22
4:00-5:30 pm
Skylight Room (Rm. 9100)

Prof. Gambari has had an illustrious career, spanning academia, government, and international diplomacy. He served as Nigeria’s Minister of Foreign Affairs between 1984 and 1985 and was Nigeria’s longest-serving Ambassador and Permanent Representative to the UN between 1990 and 1999. He became Under-Secretary-General with the UN from 2000 to 2012. He currently Co-Chairs the Commission on Global Security, Justice, and Governance at the Hague Institute for Global Justice and the Stimson Centre in Washington, D.C. He has taught at the City University of New York (1969-1974) and the State University of New York (1974-1978). Prof. Gambari is a recipient of many honors including the Special Recognition for International Development and Diplomacy Award conferred by the Africa-America Institute, the Distinguished (Foreign) Service Award by the Federal Government of Nigeria, the International House Harry Edmonds Award for Lifetime Achievement (New York), and the Campaign Against Genocide Medal by the Republic of Rwanda. He was appointed as First Chancellor, Kwara State University in Nigeria, March 2013.

Seating is free but limited.
RSVP to
RBlnstitute@gc.cuny.edu

The CUNY Graduate Center
365 Fifth Avenue (between 34th and 35th)
New York, NY 10016