Gloria Neuwirth is a senior partner at the law firm Davidson, Dawson & Clark LLP. Her practice includes counseling individuals and corporate fiduciaries, will and trust drafting, probate, estate and trust administration, federal estate tax, post-mortem estate planning, and accountings. She is a member of the Women’s City Club of New York. Neuwirth earned her B.A. from Hunter College and her J.D. from Yale Law School.

Jessica Neuwirth is an international women’s rights lawyer and activist. She is one of the founders of Equality Now, an international women’s rights organization, and of Donor Direct Action, a project to support women’s rights organizations internationally. She is currently mobilizing a new ERA, in an effort to add sex equality into the United States Constitution. She has worked for Amnesty International, the UN Office of Legal Affairs, and the UN Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights. Neuwirth holds a J.D. from Harvard Law School and a B.A. in History from Yale University, and is author, Equal means Equal: Why the Time for an Equal Rights Amendment is Now (New Press, 2014).

Barbara Crossette is the United Nations correspondent for The Nation. She has served as both the UN bureau chief and chief correspondent in Southeast Asia and South Asia for The New York Times. She is the author of "So Close to Heaven: The Vanishing Buddhist Kingdoms of the Himalayas," "The Great Hill Stations of Asia" and a Foreign Policy Association study, "India: Old Civilizations in a New World."

Tuesday, April 21 | 6 – 8pm
The Graduate Center, CUNY
365 Fifth Avenue | Room 9205

Seating is free but limited.
RSVP to RBInstitute@gc.cuny.edu